

GENERATION SUPPLY

WHO ARE WE?

Generation Supply is a student-led community initiative founded by Cesar Carlos Aguilera, a Fairfax High School freshman. Joined by hard-working, passionate partners Charlie Canuel and Isaac Roberts, our team operates on a simple belief: no student should fall behind because they don't have the right supplies. We place donation bins at local FCPS schools, collect school supplies from the community, and work with family liaisons to get those supplies redistributed to the hands of students who need them most. In just two weeks, we raised over $950 worth of supplies for underserved students at Greenbriar East, and we're just getting started. Every pencil counts. Every notebook matters. Every student deserves a fair shot at fulfilling their academic capabilities.

DONATION BOX LOCATED IN LOBBY!

What kind of supplies do we take?

- Composition Notebooks
- #2 Pencils
- Crayola Colored Pencils and Crayons
- Scissors, Glue Sticks
- And other extra school supplies you may have!

What do we do with our supplies?

- Redistribute to underserved FCPS students that need supplies
- Directly support students in Title 1 schools by giving them the materials they need to succeed