

Join Us in Transforming Community Health!

Are you passionate about making a difference in your community?

The Minority Health Consortium invites YOU to apply for the Community Health Worker Apprentice position! Help empower individuals and families by connecting them with vital health resources.

- Make a Difference: Play a crucial role in improving health outcomes for minority communities.
- Comprehensive Training: Gain hands-on experience and training in community health navigation and service delivery.
- Supportive Environment: Join a network of dedicated professionals who share your passion for health equity.
- Inclusive Engagement: Work with diverse populations and help bridge health disparities

Position Details

- Start Date: Feb. 1 , 2025
- Duration: Septrember 2025
- Pay Range: $16 - $18 per hour
- Work Hours: 10 hours per week (evening and weekend availability required)

Who Should Apply?

We encourage applications from individuals with:

- Lived experience related to health disparities or community health issues.
- A passion for serving and uplifting minority communities.
- Strong communication skills and a willingness to learn.

[Key Responsibilities]

- Connect individuals to health services and resources.
- Educate the community about health issues and available services.
- Advocate for health equity and support community health initiatives.

How to Apply!

Ready to make an impact? Scan the QR Code or go online to:

<https://bit.ly/MHCAPPRENTICEAPPLY>