

Wonderful career opportunity in Olympia

Washington State Department of Early Learning

Program Consultant

Have an impact on the policy and practice of our statewide system of early intervention services for infants and toddlers and their families.

Join the team!

- * Contribute to the development, administration, implementation, and management of all program activities in support of Washington's Part C, Early Intervention program.
- * Assure that Early Intervention providers are implementing services that are high quality and meet IDEA Part C requirements.
- * Provide training and technical assistance regarding research based early intervention practices and principles to service providers.

Minimum Qualifications:

A Bachelor's degree in early childhood, early intervention, early childhood special education, or a related field and three years of professional experience planning, administering, developing, and/or delivering infant/toddler or early childhood intervention service.

Salary and Benefits: $55,476-$74,604 depending on experience and qualifications. Benefits include comprehensive medical, dental, vision and life insurance, public employee retirement program, holiday, vacation, and sick leave.

Apply online with the Department of Early Learning

Life in Olympia

Find out more at ExperienceOlympia.com

Culture

From the Procession of the Species to an eclectic downtown to a variety of galleries and museums, Olympia has so much to offer its residents. There is always something beautiful to experience in this well rounded community.

Landscape

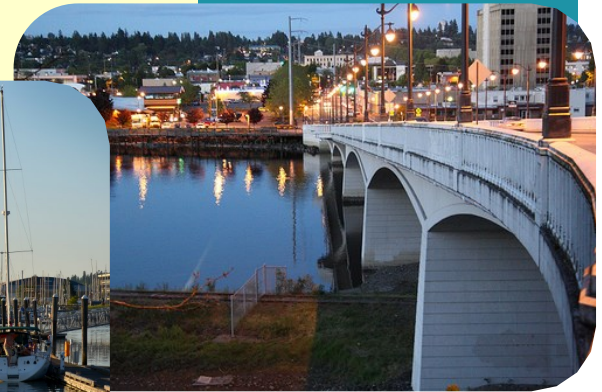

Nestled on the Puget Sound, Olympia is a beautiful place to live, work and play. Kayak in the bay, hike the Chehalis Western Train or relax in one of many serene parks. There is something for everyone to enjoy.

Community

Olympia is a friendly and welcoming city. With a wonderful school district in Olympia, as well as neighboring Lacey and Tumwater, it is a great place to raise a family. And there are enough year round events and community gatherings to make sure there is always something to do and someone to do it with.

Amenities

While Olympia has the warmth and feel of a small town, there is no shortage of amenities. There are many options for housing, shopping and utilities to make life easier. Also, conveniently located just a quick drive from Seattle or Portland allows for great access to the “big city”.

Come join our team

ESIT Mission: The purpose of the Early Support for Infants and Toddlers program is to build upon family strengths by providing coordination, supports, resources, and services to enhance the development of children with developmental delays and disabilities through everyday learning opportunities

Apply online with the Department of Early Learning