

Early Childhood Education Teachers

Be a part of the Nondominant Native Indigenous, East African, and Latinx Communities' perspectives of Education Project!!!

What is this Project?

The project situates on your perspectives, experiences and stories of teaching and learning. The objective is to elevate your values and histories in your classroom, indoors and outdoors.

Project Timeline (Note: Timeline may vary depending on each groups availability)

January

Form all three thinking groups: Native Indigenous, East African, and Latinx

February

Each thinking group will select a Saturday working best for their schedule

March/April

Gather for a final thinking group to share findings

How do I participate?

Send an e-mail to luib2@uw.edu by January 25th with "Our Perspectives of Education Project" in the subject line and I will send a full description of the project and additional information. I hope to form 6-8 individuals for each thinking group. If you have additional questions, please do contact me at: luib2@uw.edu.
