

Parent Institute for Engagement Cohort 7 Recruitment

PIE is a 12-month training program for parents/caregivers with children who have received early intervention services through the Early Support for Infants and Toddlers program (ESIT) and primarily for those who are not working in the early intervention field. Two spots are designated for a parent/caregiver who work in the early intervention field. Our goal is to have a racially and geographically diverse group of participants.

We are looking for parents and caregivers who:

- Participated in early intervention services within the last five years
- Are not working in the early intervention field (non-affiliated slots)*
- Want to build their leadership and presentation skills
- Are curious about being on a committee and have little to no experience
- Can attend and/or participate in up to five (5) virtual/online meetings (meeting times will vary) and two (2) in-person two-day meetings (travel and child care costs reimbursed)

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN ABOUT:

- Robert's Rules of Order (a framework commonly used in public meetings)
- The State Interagency Coordinating Council and its role in advising and assisting ESIT
- Review and provide feedback on written material between meetings
- The early intervention system and Part C of Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)
- Leadership and advocacy
- Public speaking and presentations
- Racial equity
- Advocacy through story telling

Participants will enhance their leadership skills and have the opportunity to practice those skills to be great candidates for school boards and government bodies.

This is a wonderful practice ground for leadership opportunities.
