Bringing together diverse partners to outline strategies and lay the foundation of lasting partnerships to identify patients in need, treat OUD, and aid in long-term recovery from opioid dependence. It includes both presentations and interactive workshops to build skills and deepen understanding of the disease and how to effectively support patients who suffer from OUD.

CMEs for healthcare, CEs for dentists, and CEUs for social workers have been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians, Spokane Dental Society, and the National Association of Social Workers. Determination of credits are pending.
