

Developmental Disabilities Administration

Presents Trainings for Continuing Education

Washington State
Department of Social & Health Services

Transforming lives

Are you an Alternative Living or Companion Home Provider?

Online Continuing Education Modules Are Available for 2023!

About the Online Modules:

Do you need to complete Continuing Education credits for 2023? DDA is happy to offer access to Continuing Education modules offered virtually through the Open Future Learning website. Up to 12 Continuing Education credits in virtual modules will be available in various subjects, including:

- Abuse Prevention- Short Version
- Do the Write Thing
- Employment
- Health and Safety
- Profound and Complex Disabilities
- Working on the Inside
- Staying Connected on Social Media (Found in Side by Side modules)

How to Reserve a Month of Access to OFL:

To access these online modules, you will need to reserve one of the following months:

- October
- November
- December

After you have reserved a month, DDA will send you a confirmation email with information on how to access OFL modules. During the time your account is active, you will be able to complete up to 12 Continuing Education credits. Registrants will be allowed to reserve access for OFL CE modules for one month only.

Target Audience:

- Companion Home Provider
- Alternative Living Provider

Click Links to Reserve

November

December

For questions regarding reserving a month subscription, please email:
conference@satraininginstitute.org