

WASHINGTON STATE 20TH ANNUAL YOUTH LEADERSHIP FORUM

For High School Students with Disabilities

Aug. 7-12, 2022 - Dumas Bay Center, Federal Way

WHO? Students age 16 years of age - prior to the start of YLF and under the age of 22.

WHAT? The Washington State Youth Leadership Forum (YLF) is an innovative, intensive, six-day leadership training program for upcoming high school juniors and seniors with disabilities. Delegates are selected from around the state of Washington to cultivate leadership, and citizenship skills while having fun and making friends.

WHY? It is critical that young people with disabilities growing into adulthood learn to identify themselves with pride as individuals and members of the very accomplished disability community.

COST? The YLF is free to attend. These services are made possible by the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services, Division of Vocation Rehabilitation.
