

September peer poem

Peer Pathways

By Amanda Major Polley

The dawn of change brings the promise
Infusing each of us with the dedication of purpose

The power which exists is greater than one
Like rays of intention that shine as bright as the sun

Gathering our peace with each warm embrace
Thriving beautifully in this annual space

So, I call upon you, friends and peers
To thrive in your recovery this coming year

And for those I may not see soon
You are loved and cherished and never alone
