

Employees on the Move in December (continued)

New hires

- D'Angelo Anderson – Burien Court Clerk
- Brenda Cruz Magana – East Division Court Coordinator
- Yvette Iniguez – MRJC Court Clerk
- Antonio Perez – Burien Court Coordinator
- Humberto Saldana Arias – Seattle Court Clerk
- Elizabeth Trejo-Camarena – Redmond Court Clerk

Tenlee Bell – Bellevue Court Clerk

Tenlee has 40 years of experience in customer service, ranging from working as a hairdresser to volunteering and raising money for non-profits. Her last 20 years have been in the early learning field, including ten years working for the non-profit Washington Association of the Education of Young Children, and another ten years as the VP of an online training company for childcare providers. Tenlee's top three enjoyments are being a foodie, listening to live music and dancing.

Sarah Magalei – Bellevue Court Clerk

Much of Sarah's work experience has been in the ministry and community service fields, primarily in White Center and SeaTac. Her jobs have included preschool teacher and administrative coordinator for the YMCA. In her spare time, Sarah enjoys spending time with family and taking drives to explore the Pacific Northwest

Jennifer Turner – Auburn Community Court Coordinator

Jennifer comes to KCDC with 15 years of experience in multiple facets of the criminal justice system and the social services. Most recently she was a corrections program specialist with the King County Dept. of Adult and Juvenile Detention. Jennifer also worked as a Family Treatment Court Specialist for King County Superior Court and in case management and life coaching roles for several organizations in the Western United States. She earned a master's in justice management from the University of Nevada Reno. Jennifer "loves to travel and spend time at the beach."

Karra Wilson – Shoreline Community Court Coordinator

Born and raised in King County, Karra is proud to be of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma. She earned a BA in law and policy and American Indian studies at the University of Washington and is currently attending Penn State University online for a master's in public administration. Prior to joining KCDC, Karra worked in the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. Karra enjoys dog parks with her rescue pup Nola, traveling, and free climbing ("in a gym, of course"). "A fun fact about me is I studied abroad and worked in The Gambia, West Africa, for three months. I got to feed monkeys and pet a crocodile when I was there!"

Acting Assignments

- Kathy Ho – Acting Revenue Coordinator
