

Lake Sammamish Kokanee Work Group – DRAFT AGENDA*Wednesday, April 23, 2025 (meeting: 2:00 – 4:00pm)*Tibbetts Creek Manor, 750 17th Ave NW, Issaquah, WA 98027 (Hybrid option available: Click here to join the meeting)

Time	Topic	Lead	Focus and Outcomes	Materials / Format
2:00 – 2:15	Announcements and Agenda Review	Alison Agness	Confirm meeting topics and share program announcements	Meeting Agenda
2:15- 2:40	Fry Trapping and Remote Stream Incubator Program Updates	Dave Kyle, Trout Unlimited	Share early results of fry trapping, the status of remote stream incubator (RSI) efforts, and proposed expansion of the RSI program	Presentation / Q&A
2:40 – 3:10	KWG Communications Planning	Alison Agness	Revisit our 2024 work session and poll results on enhancing awareness of kokanee conservation and discuss next steps to develop a KWG communications plan in line with Kokanee ILA Management Committee direction and funding.	Presentation / Group Discussion
3:10 – 3:40	Draft List of Potential Actions to Support Kokanee Recovery	Alison Agness	Review and contribute to a draft list of potential actions to support kokanee recovery. This list will be ranked at a later workshop to develop priority research and management actions for the future of the kokanee recovery program as part of updating the ecological survey.	Presentation / Work session
3:40 – 4:00	Around the Watershed Updates	TU, Cities, County, Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, Greenway, Mid-Sound, etc.	Opportunity to share updates on science, habitat, and other actions recently completed or underway: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Highlight your challenges that could benefit from KWG support.• Share your successes for collective KWG inspiration!	Round Robin / Group Discussion

The goal of the Lake Sammamish Kokanee Work Group is to prevent the extinction and improve the health of the native kokanee population such that it is viable and self-sustaining, and then supports fishery opportunities.