Community Notification: Level III Sex Offender

PORT ORCHARD, Wash. -- The Kitsap County Sheriff's Office is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550, and a Washington State Supreme Court decision in State vs. Ward, regarding public notification of the anticipated residency of a convicted sexual offender.

"The person named in this advisory has been convicted of a criminal offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of residence," said Sheriff Gary Simpson. "Further, his previous criminal history places him in a classification level that reflects the potential to re-offend."

Name: Kim Patrick Daly, white male, age 63.

Residence location: Daly has registered with the sheriff's office that he will be residing in the 17000 block of Viking Way NW, Poulsbo.

Description:

Height: 5' 11"

Weight: 200 lbs.

Hair: brown

Eyes: blue

Kim Patrick Daly

Criminal history: Kim Daly was convicted in 1999 of two counts of indecent liberties when he was living in a care facility for developmentally disabled adults working as a janitor and kitchen help.

Daly was involved in several sexual relationships with male and female residents to include a severely disabled man whom he sexually assaulted for 12 years.

In 1980 Daly was convicted of indecent liberties for sexually abusing a neighbor boy, age 3, who was known to him.

While incarcerated in the Special Commitment Center from 2005 - 2017, Daly committed 45 policy violation to include refusing direction, indecent exposure, property violations, disruptive behavior, verbal harassment, sexual activity and delaying staff.

Daly participated in sex offender treatment programs sporadically over the years he was incarcerated.

Additional information: As of Nov. 15, there are 22,200 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in Washington state. Of this number, 808 are registered with Kitsap County Sheriff's Office.

The sex offender listed above already has served the sentences imposed on him by the courts. He has advised the sheriff's office that he will be living within Kitsap County. This person is not wanted by law enforcement at this time. This notification is not intended to increase fear. Rather, an informed public is a safer public.

The sheriff's office has no legal authority to direct where registered sex offenders may or may not reside. Unless court-ordered restrictions exist, registered sex offenders are constitutionally free to live wherever they choose. Passage of legislation entitled the "Community Protection Act of 1990," mandates sex offender registration which, in turn, has provided civil authorities the means to monitor where sex offenders reside.

Abuse of information provided through the sex offender notification process, to intimidate, harass or threaten registered offenders, will result in an investigation and the filing of criminal charges against the perpetrators.

Neighborhood Watch: The sheriff's community resource officer, Deputy Schon Montague, is available to assist communities in establishing block or neighborhood watch programs and to provide the public with information on personal safety. He may be contacted via e-mail at: smontagu@co.kitsap.wa.us
