

Center for Domestic Preparedness

The Center for Domestic Preparedness (CDP) will host Law Enforcement (LE) National Security week March 8-14, 2026 (8th and 14th are travel days), on the CDP campus in Anniston, AL. CDP training is completely funded for state, local, tribal and territorial emergency responders to include roundtrip airfare, meals, lodging, tuition and any equipment required during training.

The training week starts with a Law Enforcement Professional Development Day followed by training tracks that include Public Order, Active Shooter, and CBRNE training for Law Enforcement. The training week ends with an Integrated Capstone Event (ICE).

Upon successful completion, participants will have enhanced their response capabilities in multiple areas to include active threat response, mass casualty incident response and recovery functions, decontamination operations, civil disturbance mitigation and making critical decisions in an all-hazards event. Personnel who attend this training will be better prepared to respond to emergencies.
