

Dual Language Immersion Study Abroad

CHINESE PROGRAM

Get out of the classroom and step into the culture!

Are you a high school student who has scored a 3, 4 or 5 on the AP® Chinese language exam? Take your language to the next level in this month-long overseas summer program hosted on the campus of a Chinese university.

Overseas Program includes:

- | | |
|---|--|
|  Hours of Mandarin instruction |  Weekend excursions |
|  Small classes with likeminded peers |  Cultural activities every afternoon |
|  An on-campus college experience |  The opportunity to live with a Chinese host family |
|  Career readiness activities w/ Chinese professionals |  An experienced, onsite American resident advisor |

$7,990 covers all program components, including housing and meals. Airfare, passport, visa, and baggage fees are not included. Limited scholarships are available.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be 16-18 years old and enrolled in high school
- Have scored a 3, 4, or 5 on the AP® Chinese exam
- Have dual language or immersion experience from elementary, middle, or high school

Key Dates

Application Deadline: February 14, 2020

Anticipated Program Dates: July 2020

Apply today!

<https://ais.americancouncils.org/dli>

What makes an American Councils experience different?

With more than 40 years of experience administering language and cultural exchange programs for high school and college students, American Councils offers unparalleled expertise in leading high quality, student-centered study abroad programming focused on language study. Dedicated to our participants' safety and personal development, American Councils offers 24/7 program support that includes, visa support, a pre-program orientation and on-site staff, plus opportunities to connect with advanced learners in other programs we administer in China such as NSLI-Y, CLS, and Flagship Programs.