

Confront the Past, Create the Future: Learning from the Holocaust

HolocaustCenterSeattle.org

Holocaust education is history, literature, social studies, ethics, politics, art, and so much more.

It is through studying the Holocaust that we learn the importance of promoting equity, taking action, and speaking out against bigotry and indifference.

"How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world."

ANNE FRANK

"Every public middle school, junior high school, and high school is strongly encouraged to include in its curriculum instruction on the Holocaust."

– Washington State Holocaust Education Bill, passed April 2019

To help schools and educators meet this recommendation, the Holocaust Center for Humanity provides free of charge:

- ✓ Best Practices – user-friendly online platform with literature guides, lesson outlines, videos and interactive activities
- ✓ Virtual Speakers Bureau – survivors and their descendants share their family experiences
- ✓ Virtual Field Trip Experience – bring the museum to your students*
- ✓ Professional Development – offered online throughout the year, clock hours available
