

April Student Classes: AP Review Topics

The National Constitution Center is here to support your teachers and students with live classes perfect for AP prep.

This April, our free Scholar Exchanges—LIVE online civics classes for students—cover topics aligned to the Advanced Placement Government and Politics exam. All month long, our team of constitutional scholars will review events of the Constitutional Convention, our nation's founding documents—including the Bill of Rights—Supreme Court cases, and other relevant topics covered in a typical AP GoPo course.
