

FREE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR TEACHERS IN ENGAGING CIVICS BASED CURRICULUM

JOIN THE PROJECT CITIZEN RESEARCH PROGRAM!

The Project Citizen Research Program is open to middle and high school teachers new to using the Project Citizen curriculum. The program will provide teachers with free professional development, a set of books for their students, a $700 stipend, and networking opportunities!

PARTICIPATING TEACHERS WILL:

- Attend a summer professional development institute in 2021
- Participate in a two day training during the 21/22 school year
- Engage students in the Project Citizen curriculum
- Receive support from expert mentors & an online learning community
- Complete pre & post surveys of civic knowledge and instructional methods
- Supervise students as they complete pre & post surveys
- Network with 20+ teachers in a multi-state region

The Project Citizen curriculum engages young people in cooperative, project-based learning as they work as a class to influence public policy locally by creating a political action plan to submit to public officials. To learn more, visit <https://civiced.org/programs/project-citizen>.
