

NCSS 102nd Annual Conference Student Art Contest Starts Now!

Win $500 for your Rho Kappa Chapter

The Rho Kappa Advisory Council and National Council for the Social Studies announce their first Rho Kappa National Social Studies Honor Society Art Contest.

The NCSS 2022 Annual Conference theme is: Revolutionary! Ideas and Actions Change the World. The conference will be hosted in Philadelphia, PA from December 2-4, 2022.

Send us your logo or artwork to express this theme! Your logo or artwork design will be proudly displayed to our attendees as the conference greeting on NCSS branded design items (T-shirts, program guides, website, advertisements, etc.). It's your chance to be original and show how your logo or artwork can be revolutionary and inspire actions and ideas that can change the world! (Get it?)

The Rules: Your logo or artwork must be original. You do not have to be a member of Rho Kappa to participate, but your school must be an active Rho Kappa chapter. Create the original logo or artwork yourself or collaborate with your schoolmates! Submit your design in one of these file formats: .eps, .ai, or .pdf. Fill out the student information form and artwork waiver forms. Click send!

(Important: No submittal forms will be considered without a signed copy of the student form and artwork waiver form. For each student who collaborates, the student must complete a student information form and an artwork waiver form. Missing forms will cause your artwork to be disqualified.)

The Deadline: September 23, 2021, 11:59 pm ET

Did we mention? The winner's chapter receives a $500 check to support Rho Kappa activities at their school!
