

Seeking Social Studies Teachers for a Research Partnership on Civics Education with Immigrant Youth

Dear Teachers,

I'm a doctoral candidate at the University of Washington and I'm recruiting participants from the Puget Sound region for a study on instructional aims in civics education with immigrant youth. As a former social studies and ELL teacher, I'm interested in researching the experiences of high school educators and their students from immigrant families.

My study is designed to learn alongside teachers, while offering them inquiry-based professional development. Selected participants will receive a stipend plus clock hours. I am seeking partners who meet the following criteria:

- Teach high school courses focused on civics or government.
- Serve diverse students from immigrant families.
- Interested in their own professional growth and learning.
- Willing to engage in dialogue with students and other teachers.

If that sounds like you, please fill out this questionnaire by December 31, 2021.
(The questionnaire can be accessed at <https://forms.gle/ktRjYfboX6UeQTg39> .)

If you'd like to nominate a teacher - or for any questions or further information - please don't hesitate to contact me at tauzel@uw.edu. Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely,
Brian Tauzel
