

Join colleagues for discussion and learning within a vibrant, virtual community of practice focused on wellbeing, connection, and creating conditions for the success of refugee and immigrant students. Earn 45 clock-hours/CEUs!*

Refugee Educator Foundations of Practice

Online Summer Learning Community & Course

ABOUT THE COURSE

The Refugee Educator Foundations of Practice (REFP) course and community of practice was co-created with teachers for teachers and aims to bring educators together in dialog about their practice centered around refugee/immigrant education.

Topics include:

- understanding displacement & resettlement, & getting to know refugee/newcomer students
- culturally relevant and sustaining pedagogies
- SEL & trauma-informed practice
- curriculum design
- instructional strategies

Joining this 8-9 week learning community gives you full access to the facilitated online course, community meetings, instructional support, and 45 clock-hours/CEUs.* Course work is largely asynchronous within each course module, paced for a low-stress, flexible summer.

Just 4-5 hours per week!

 Check with your district about clock-hour/CEU policies. We are NY CTLE and WA PESB clock hour providers. 4.5 college quarter credits are available for an additional, nominal fee through partnership with UCSD Extension.*

THIS SUMMER:

Recenter your joy in teaching refugee and immigrant learners. Refresh your purpose and passion. Reconnect with colleagues and explore ways forward as curriculum designers, policy-makers, advocates, liaisons, and all that you, as an educator, do!

Join Cohort One (June 1-July 29th) or Cohort Two (June 24-August 26th).

Course costs $300.

Register here

Questions? Email Julie Kasper at jkasper@ceinternational1892.org.

