

Tell Us Your Story: Student and Youth Input Needed

Participate in Changing Truancy

- Share your experiences with missing school, attendance supports or the truancy process.
- What supports do youth and families need to attend school?
- Do you have ideas for how schools and courts approach truancy so that it could be more supportive and less punitive?

Who can participate?

- Youth who are in grades 6 through 12th grade
- Parents or guardians of youth in grades Kindergarten-12th

What is our goal?

OSPI leaders are hoping to understand from you what changes will help our state's truancy laws and supports better support you to access your education. This project is called, "Re-envisioning Truancy in Washington".

Scan the QR code or follow the link below to fill out a short interest form.

bit.ly/AttendanceWA

Participants will receive $45/hour gift card(s) as compensation for their time.

The Washington Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI) is the primary agency charged with overseeing public education in Washington state. OSPI work to ensure that every student in Washington is provided a high-quality public education.

For more information about the project and participation, please visit our website or contact AttendanceWA@air.org or call 425-917-7724

Washington Office of Superintendent of PUBLIC INSTRUCTION