January 2018 Edition

Dear Wisconsin Children's Safety Advocates:

In December 2017, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission issued a total of 12 recalls relating to products affecting children. Attached is a summary of the releases identifying the product, the problem, and what should be done with the recalled product.

We have found that not all of the recalls are picked up by the news media as they occur. This monthly summary will give you the opportunity to review all of the children's product safety recalls for the past month. If you are interested in a complete text of the recall, click on the hyperlink at the end of the recall description. This will direct you to the recall notice located on the CPSC website.

KEEP YOUR KIDS SAFE

Release Number: (#18-056) One Stop Shop, LLC, of Feeding Hills, Mass., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 350 children's pajama sets. This recall involves children's 100 percent cotton knit, two-piece, long-sleeve top and pant pajama sets. They were sold in three different styles: Santa Claus print with a white button and black and gold belt screenprint; Elf screenprint with a white Peter Pan collar, three red buttons and a black and gold belt; and reindeer screenprint on the top with a Faire Isle pattern on the pant and a reindeer on the top. "Mad Engine" "RN 129993" and the size are on the neck label. The pajama sets were sold in children's sizes XXS, XS, S, M, L and XL. Mad Engine claims these recalled pajama sets are counterfeit.

Problem: The children's pajamas fail to meet the flammability standard for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled pajamas away from children and contact One Stop Shop for a full refund. Consumers can contact One Stop Shop toll-free at 888-884-7202 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. ET Monday through Friday or email onestopshoplcc1001@outlook.com.

Release Number: (#18-061) Todd Snyder, of New York, N.Y., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 2,100 Todd Snyder + Champion brand sweatshirts. This recall involves Todd Snyder + Champion brand men's 100 percent cotton brushed fleece knit, long-sleeve, reverse weave sweatshirts. They have ribbed side gussets and a Champion applique logo on the left wrist. "Champion Processed Sportswear + Todd Snyder New York" is printed on a label at the neck. The SoulCycle sweatshirts have a SoulCycle logo on the front.

Problem: The sweatshirts fail to meet federal flammability standards for clothing textiles, posing a burn risk to users.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled sweatshirts and contact Todd Snyder to return them for a full refund plus a $50 gift card. Consumers who purchased the sweatshirts online will be contacted directly by the firm. Consumers can contact Todd Snyder toll-free at 866-897-0333 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. ET Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET on Saturday and Sunday, email at recall@toddsnyder.com or online at www.toddsnyder.com and click on Product Recall for more information.

Release Number: (#18-066) Squatty Potty, LLC, of St. George, Utah and Amazon, of Seattle, Wash, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 2,400 children's toilet step stools. This recall involves the Squatty Pottymus children's toilet step stools used to assist a child in reaching a toilet seat. The plastic step stools measure about 15.8 by 16.8 by 10 inches and were sold individually or as a part of a set, which included a toilet seat and decorative stickers. The step stool is designed to look like a gray hippopotamus with blue or purple eyes. It has a height-adjusting aqua blue hat top step and cut-outs that function as handles on each side.

Problem: The top removable step (hat) on the recalled children's toilet step stools can detach while a child is standing on it, posing injury and fall hazards.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the children's toilet step stools until they remove the hat. Consumers should contact Squatty Potty for instructions on returning the hat portion of the stool, free of cost, for a $10 refund. Consumers can contact Squatty Potty toll-free at 855-628-1099 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. MT Monday through Friday, email at recall@squattypotty.com or online at www.squattypotty.com and hover over the "More" tab and then click "Press" for more information.

Release Number: (#18-069) Rocky Mountain Bicycles, of Canada, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 1,300 mountain bicycles. This recall involves all model year 2018 Altitude, Instinct and Pipeline mountain bicycles. The carbon fiber and aluminum bicycles were sold in different colors. The model name is printed on a sticker on the top tube of the bicycles. Rocky Mountain is printed on the down tube. The Rocky Mountain logo is also printed on the headbadge on the headtube. The specified platform family is also printed on the rear triangle of the bicycle at the seatstay.

Problem: The brake cable housing was not secured properly during manufacturing, which can cause brake failure, posing a crash hazard to the rider.

What to do: Consumers should stop using the recalled bicycles immediately and contact an authorized Rocky Mountain dealer for free inspection and free repair. Consumers can contact Rocky Mountain at 866-522-2803 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, via email at info@bikes.com or online at www.bikes.com and click on Safety/Recall at the bottom of the page.
