MADISON – The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) will participate in a Safety Training Symposium during this year’s World Dairy Expo in Madison.

Organized by the University of Wisconsin-River Falls Center for Dairy Farm Safety and M3 Insurance, the symposium will give World Dairy Expo attendees the opportunity to learn about ways to keep farm workers and employees safe on the farm.

DATCP Secretary Harsdorf will welcome the public to the symposium, and DATCP Farm Center Director Kathy Schmitt will be among the symposium’s speakers.

Topics include:

- OSHA Industry Overview-Farm Safety Policy Updates
- Developing an Effective Farm Safety Plan
- Safety Training for Non-English Speaking Workers
- Safe Handling of Pharmaceuticals and Animals
- Understanding Stress on Dairy Farms

World Dairy Expo attendees are encouraged to attend the symposium, scheduled Thursday, Oct. 4, 9 a.m.-2 p.m., in Mendota 4 Ballroom at the Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall.
