The Wisconsin Department of Justice, Office of Crime Victim Services (OCVS) Introductory Training for Victim Service Providers offers the opportunity to acquire the essential skills and knowledge needed to assist victims of crime more effectively. This Training has four sessions:

- Enforcement of Crime Victims' Rights & Marsy's Law in Wisconsin
- Crime Victim Compensation (CVC)
- Sexual Assault Forensic Exam (SAFE) Fund
- Safe at Home

The prerequisite to attend this training is to watch the following pre-recorded training videos: History of Crime Victim Rights in Wisconsin, Enforcement of Crime Victim Rights in Wisconsin, Crime Victim Compensation and The SAFE Fund, and complete a brief post-test to confirm your knowledge of the material. These videos provide introductory material that sets the foundation to attend the virtual Introductory Training for Victim Service Providers. The training videos and post-test can be found online click here.
