HARIBO CHOOSES CONTRACTOR FOR WISCONSIN FACTORY BUILD

The U.S.'s #1 brand, HARIBO, has chosen Gilbane Building Company, Milwaukee, Wis. as the general contractor to build its first-ever North American manufacturing facility

ROSEMONT, Ill. – October 26, 2020 — HARIBO of America has selected Gilbane Building Company, Milwaukee, Wis., as the general contractor for its first-ever North American manufacturing facility in Pleasant Prairie, Wis.

“The strategic decision to build a manufacturing facility in North America is of great importance to the HARIBO Group, and we are thrilled to take this next important step in the process,” said Hans Guido Riegel, managing partner of the HARIBO Group. “HARIBO is the fastest growing confectionery brand in the U.S., and our production facility will support continued long-term growth while also allowing us to be part of the Pleasant Prairie community,” he continued. “Our customers and consumers in the U.S. expect us to deliver the HARIBO products they love quickly and reliably. With the new plant we are living up to this responsibility.”

“We’re proud of this major milestone and partnering with Gilbane Building Company on bringing our first North American factory to life,” said Arndt Ruesges, chief production officer, HARIBO of America. “We chose to partner with Gilbane, because of the company’s extensive experience, breadth of knowledge and commitment to service. We share the same core values of quality and trust.”

Gilbane Building Company will be responsible for all construction and work-site management, and is committed to executing with excellence. Construction on the 136.8 acre facility is going to begin as soon as possible in 2020.

“It’s a great honor to partner with HARIBO, and we’re so pleased we earned the team’s trust to deliver this world-class manufacturing complex,” said Adam Jelen, senior vice president, Gilbane Building Company, Milwaukee, Wis. “Like HARIBO, Gilbane is committed to quality and being part of the community. We’re looking forward to the next steps on this exciting project and to continuing our longstanding commitment to Southeast Wisconsin.”

The factory involves a multi-phase build, and upon completion, it will amplify HARIBO’s ability to get confectionery products to U.S. customers and consumers with more speed and efficiency than ever before.

“HARIBO will invest well above $300 million in our state-of-the-art facility, the largest project in our 100-year history,” said Wes Saber, chief financial officer, HARIBO of America. “In addition to that investment, we’re going to create up to 385 direct HARIBO jobs in phase one of our build and up to 4,200 indirect jobs upon completion of our full build as per an independent economic study,” he continued. “It’s important to us to be exemplary corporate citizens and give back to
