

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the STATE TREASURER

Proclamation

WHEREAS; the America Saves and Wisconsin Saves campaigns have worked to encourage people to participate in savings practices that lead to increased financial security and the reduction of debt; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin continues to be a partner in the America Saves Week campaign to encourage residents to take steps toward securing their financial future; and

WHEREAS; Saving allows Wisconsinites to achieve their dreams of starting a business, growing a family, and going to college, while also ensuring they are prepared for retirement; and

WHEREAS; Awareness, education, community support, and resources are essential to helping Wisconsinites take action towards pursuing their aspirations and dreams; and

WHEREAS; The statewide Wisconsin Saves Automatic Saving Initiative encourages businesses to work with their employees to save each month through payroll split deposit to establish emergency savings and save for the future;

Now therefore, I, Sarah Godlewski, State Treasurer of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim February 21–25, 2022, as Wisconsin Saves Week in partnership with the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions, Wisconsin Women’s Business Initiative Corporation, the Wisconsin Bankers Association, and America Saves.
