Cullompton Community Centre (Main Hall)

Pye Corner, Cullompton EX15 1JX

Buffet lunch and refreshments will be included.

- To learn why Attachment difficulties provoke strong responses in Carers
- To enable Carers to recognise their own responses to children with attachment difficulties
- To assist Carers in recognising and managing compassion fatigue/ blocked care

Sarah Naish qualified as a social worker in 1991 and is a Therapeutic Parent of five adopted children. It is this experience that was applied to our successful therapeutic model within the fostering agency she previously owned, which she has since sold and set up Inspire Training Group. Sarah is also an author of therapeutic parenting books for parents as well as children and has funded research in to compassion fatigue in fostering with University of Bristol. They are now using their findings to help supports those facing compassion fatigue.
