

VARIOUS LOCATIONS ACROSS SUFFOLK
Apprentice Planning Technicians (10 posts)
Salary: From £6559 rising in Year 2
37 hpw / Fixed term for 2 years
Ref: S/1425946KJP/NDBS

This advert is on behalf of the district and borough councils of Suffolk as well as Suffolk County Council.

We are offering ten successful candidates an opportunity to join our Apprentice Planning Technician Scheme with fully supported study, to gain a BTEC planning diploma and an NVQ at Level 3 (equivalent to 2 'A' levels) through day release working with Havering College, who are delivering the training in Suffolk.

The apprenticeship is aimed at young people and school leavers looking for their first position in town planning.

Planning is a set of skills and processes that help to build homes, support jobs and protect the environment.

Each district and borough has committed to two or more apprenticeships and Suffolk County Council has one apprenticeship available.

You will need to have:

- 5 GCSEs or equivalent, including English and Maths
- skills in IT
- an interest in planning
- a willingness to learn and be self-motivated
- great customer service skills
- good communication skills (written and verbal)
- a commitment to study and learn outside work.
