

Financial Fellows Roles and Responsibilities

Participants are required to commit to:

1. Be responsive to FEPPP requests and emails.
2. Update FEPPP on changes to your position and building location.
3. Present a 1–3-hour professional development approved by FEPPP. (This could include but is not limited to conferences hosted by DECA, Future Business Leaders of America, Vocational/Technical groups, and WALA members.)
4. Serve as a conduit to distribute information about FEPPP financial programs in your school district and ESD region.
5. Participate in quarterly virtual FEPPP Financial Fellows trainings.
6. Attend monthly FEPPP Education Committee meetings.
7. Attend one annual FEPPP professional development and/or one in-person Fellows training (if offered).
8. Fellows presenting at conferences are expected to serve as official liaisons with the various educational groups, promoting financial education within each group while simultaneously acting as an information source. FEPPP will assist in arranging the conference presentation and provide materials.
9. Serve as advocates for financial education within their communities as private citizens.
