

AWARENESS TRAINING

September 25, 2018 - 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Carpenters Union

N25W23055 Paul Road, Pewaukee, WI 53072

Light
Breakfast &
Lunch
Provided!

- Promotes the communication, awareness, and protocol required for working in an occupied health care facility.
- Outlines protection methods and safe work practices for various trades and hospital personnel working in these types of facilities.

AREAS OF FOCUS:

AWARENESS

- Importance of hazardous material awareness
- What makes an occupied facility unique?
- Potential hazards that may be found when working in an occupied facility

CONTROLLING CONTAMINANTS

- Difference between contaminants and infectious agents
- Different types of construction barriers
- Proper way to use a HEPA machine
- Difference between positive and negative air flow

MOLD

- Why is mold unique in a health care facility?
- Mold remediation process
- How can mold change the scope of work?

ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROLS

- The role of an ICRA team
- Teaches you how to read an ICRA form
- Importance of a firestop system in an occupied facility

WORK PROTOCOL

- Important safety considerations when working in an occupied facility
- Importance of using designated routes when bringing construction material to and from the jobsite
- Why is it important to cover equipment and finishes?
- Importance of placards

CONTACT:

James Kroening
jkroening@ncsrcc.org
262-787-8415

Register online:
<https://conta.cc/2GkcdJ0>